

The Training of Social Workers

Conference, Association of Social Workers under foot from the District Conference in papers and reviews, many being held in New Zealand. The Conference Association has already done valuable work and is preparing for the conference. There are many busy topics to be discussed.

- (1) The new Government workers social school at Tamanga, Wellington.
- (2) An evaluation of the place and role of the School of Social Science in the training of social workers.
- (3) Voluntary social services and the training of their staff.
- (4) In-service training courses.

Finance

The Interim Steering Committee is concerned that a wide representation of Social Workers throughout New Zealand and from all agencies, both Government and voluntary, should attend.

To help spread the financial burden and make it easier for distant members to attend the Interim Steering Committee has asked the Auckland Association to set up a special Conference Fund.

All social workers in New Zealand, whether attending the Conference or not, are invited to contribute via 10/- each to this fund.

Grants paid on actual expenses will then be made on a systematic basis to those coming long distances to attend.

Those planning to attend the Conference should also pay a contribution for 10/- (not refundable) which will go towards expenses - printing, postage, secretarial services.

Conference Broadsheet issued by Auckland Association of Social Workers on behalf of N.Z. Social Workers Interim Steering Committee.

To all Social Workers in New Zealand

This Broadsheet is the second one issued by the Interim Steering Committee of the N.Z. Social Workers Association which was set up by the Study Conference in Dunedin in February, 1964.

Broadsheet One of which we hope all of you have seen a copy, contained the results of the work on Ethics allocated at that Conference to the Organisation of Social Workers and the work of the Central District Social Workers Association who were asked to draft a Constitution.

This Broadsheet contains information about the

The Training of Social Workers

Canterbury Association of Social Workers undertook from the Dunedin Conference to prepare and review social work training in New Zealand. The Canterbury Association has already done valuable work and is preparing for the conference. There are many lively topics to be discussed:

- (1) The new Government workers social school at Trimoana, Wellington.
- (2) An evaluation of the place and role of the School of Social Science in the training of social workers.
- (3) Voluntary social services and the training of their staff.
- (4) In service training course.

To help spread the financial burden and make it easier for distant members to attend the Interim Steering Committee has asked the Auckland Association to set up a special Conference Fund.

All social workers in New Zealand, whether attending the Conference or not, are invited to contribute say, 10/- each to this Fund.

Grants based on actual expenses will then be made on a systematic basis to those coming long distances to attend.

Those planning to attend the Conference should also pay a registration fee of 10/- (not refundable) which will go towards expenses — printing, postage, secretarial services.

Members who wish to live in at O'Rorke Hall should, in addition, let the Conference Treasurer have a deposit of at least £1 towards accommodation expenses. This amount will be refundable if the booking is not taken up.
